

Ventura County Barristers present

How to Try a Case Like an Experienced Lawyer Without Sounding Like a New Lawyer

– From a Judicial Perspective

Saturday, July 23, 2016

9:00 a.m. to 12:00 p.m.

Ventura College of Law

4475 Market Street – Room 8

3 GENERAL MCLE Credits!

A workshop geared toward new attorneys who want some practical insight in trying their case. This workshop will focus on practical trial preparation and courtroom presentation, not trial strategy, and will be presented by the Honorable Gilbert A. Romero, Ventura County Superior Court. This is a great opportunity for new attorneys to learn how to present their case to a jury.

Topics to be covered: pretrial motions and their purpose, jury selection and its boundaries, exhibits, opening statements, presentation of evidence and publishing exhibits, refreshing recollection versus impeachment, objections, closing arguments, and jury instructions.

This activity has been approved for Minimum Continuing Legal Education credit by the State Bar of California in the amount of 3 hours of GENERAL credit. VCBA certifies that this activity conforms to the standards for approved education activities prescribed by the rules and regulations of the State Bar of California governing Minimum Continuing Legal Education.
